

I am signed up for the do not call list and unfortunately people do not check it before calling me, I still receive annoying calls. I think all the solicitation calls should be stopped. I certainly don't want people selling me things on a private line that I have call waiting on. It is most annoying. Keep the do not call list in force and inforce it!